George A. Marks, who in point of service is the junior member of the Board of Aldermen from Madison Ward, has for many years held a responsible position with the American Locomotive Company, being popular with his superiors as well as those under him. Mr. Marks, though long an active party worker, never aspired to public office until he was elected to the Board in May, 1908, to fill the unexpired term of W. T. Dabney, resigned. He was
